- (b) All Upper Division Clerks (i.e. all permanent, quasi-permanent and temporary Upper Division Clerks) in any of the Ministries participating in the C.S.S. Scheme or in included attached offices who were in position on the date of issue of the Notice for the examination; and
- (c) All persons who have been or may be promoted to the Upper Division Clerks' Grade in the Ministries and attached offices participating in the C.S.S. Scheme on the basis of the Upper Division Clerks' Examination held by the Union Public Service Commission in August 1956.

Note I—Persons nominated to temporary posts of Assistants on the results of the Assistant's Grade Examination, November 1955, will not be eligible to take this Examination.

Note II—Temporary or quasi-permanent Assistants and Upper Division Clerks who have proceeded on deputation to "ex-cadre" posts with the approval of the Ministry of Home Affairs prior to the date of issue of the Notice for the examination and who but for their deputation would have been in position as Assistants or Upper Division Clerks on that date will also be eligible for appearing at this examination.

8. A candidate must satisfy the Commission that his character is such as to make him suitable for appointment to the Service.

9. (a) No male candidate who has more than one wife living shall be eligible for appointment on the results of this competitive examination unless the Government of India after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so exempt any male candidate from the operation of this rule.

(b) No female candidate who has married a person having already a wife living shall be eligible for appointment on the results of this competitive examination unless the Government of India after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any female candidate from the operation of this rule.

10. The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final.

11. No candidate will be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission from the Commission.

12. A candidate found guilty of impersonation, or of submitting fabricated documents, or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false, or suppressing material information, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or otherwise resorting to any irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination may, in addition to rendering himself liable to a criminal prosecution, be debarred, either permanently or for a specified period:—

- (a) by the Commission from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and
- (b) by the Central Government from employment under the Government.

13. No recommendations except those required in the application form will be taken into consideration. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may disqualify him for admission.

14. Candidates need not pay any fee for admission to the examination.

15. The examination for appointment under these rules shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner prescribed in the regulations which form Appendix to these rules.

16. The Commission shall prepare a list of candidates in the order of their merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks awarded to each candidate in the written examination and the assessment of character rolls and in that order candidates upto the number of reserved and unreserved vacancies, will be offered appointment in the Regular Temporary Establishment of Assistants.

Note—Success in the examination confers no right to appointment, unless Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Service.
